

DESIGN DIPLOMACY — playful discussion about design

The Embassy of Finland and Helsinki Design Week warmly welcome you to join the Design Diplomacy event at the Ambassador's residence. Finnish spatial and product designer Tero Kuitunen, the curator of the "Wild at Heart" exhibition of the Vienna Design Week, meets his Austrian counterpart, industrial designer Johanna Pichlbauer in a playful discussion with the help of a new card game. Surprising and intelligent questions challenge the designers and the audience. Helsinki Design Week director Kari Korkman moderates the discussion. Refreshments will be served after the discussion.

Date: Friday 27 September
Time: at 16.00 hrs
Address: Reisnerstraße 51,
1030 Wien

Read more about the event and register HERE

The new event by Helsinki Design Week takes you into diplomatic circles via a series of evening discussions inside the ambassadors' domestic residences. In each residence, one design professional from the hosting country meets a Finnish designer with the help of a new card game. Playful and intelligent questions challenge the speakers and the audience.

VIENNA
DESIGN WEEK

Helsinki

Design

Week