

Joyce Koskenmaki

Joyce Koskenmaki was raised in a small Finnish immigrant community in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. After obtaining her MFA at the University of Iowa, she taught at several different colleges and universities, including Kenyon College in Ohio and Suomi College in Michigan. She exhibited internationally, receiving many grants and awards. Now she lives and works full time in her studio in the North Woods.

Artworks included in the #FinnishArtUSA project

Joyce Koskenmaki, Grizzly
Oil on canvas, 36" x 36"
Courtesy of the artist.
Painting photographs by Adam Johnson.

Joyce Koskenmaki, Three Birches
Oil on canvas, 40" x 40"
Courtesy of the artist.
Painting photographs by Adam Johnson.

Joyce Koskenmaki, Moose

Oil on canvas, 52" x 48"

Courtesy of the artist.

Painting photographs by Adam Johnson from Brockit.com.

More information on artist's webpage: www.joycekoskenmaki.com.

Embassy of Finland
Washington D.C.