

Sara Pajunen

Photo: Kelly Davidson

Sara Pajunen is a violinist and composer based in Minnesota. Her work is motivated by the interaction between her deep connection to ancestral roots and her experience of current American culture.

She has released six albums using Finnish folk music as a basis for singular collaborations. Long-term project "Mine Songs: Sounding an Altered Landscape" blurs human perceptions of sound while creating a variegated depiction of her childhood and ancestral home in Northern Minnesota's Mesabi Iron Range.

More about Pajunen's work: www.sarapajunen.com.

Embassy of Finland
Washington D.C.